VOL. XXXV. SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., AUGUST 23, 1913. NO. 8

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Mrs. L. L. Lewis visited in Berkeley the first of the week.

Tom Ryan was in the city Sunday taking in the races at the stadium.

John Vincent and Walter Poulson were visitors in San Francisco Sunday.

T. H. Baines was transacting business in the metropolis the latter part of last week.

John Serres of San Francisco spent several days last week visiting relatives here.

Frank Pendergast of Woodland was in town the latter part of last week renewing old acquaintances.

C. A. Bergstrom, lumber man of Fetters Hot Springs, has gone into the real estate business at that place.

Doc Engler, well-known N. W. P. brakeman, came down from Santa Rosa on last Saturday morning's S. P. train en route to Sonoma.

A number of our saloon men who were put out of business by Guy Bigelow are wondering why he did not advise them to sell the booze along with Mr. Remazano. This shows what kind of a man we have.

Go to the polls on September 16 and vote against the recall of Supervisor Weise. All should work hard to defeat Bigelow, for this election all depends on whether or not the reformer will pull off another local option election when the time comes.

The election booth for the coming election will be located in the El Verano garage. This will enable everyone to get a look at the father of the recall when he casts that awful vote, and McKiver will have his moving picture machine ready when Guy steps into that booth.

Bob Armstrong, formerly one of the stars in the heavyweight division and who has fought many battles, is here training Charley Miller who is to fight in Los Angeles for the championship of the world against the holder, Arthur Pelkey. Armstrong knows all the tricks of the game and should be able to coach Charley on to victory.

The baby girl of Mr and Mrs. Austin Moore was christened at the Catholic Church, Sonoma, last Sunday. A number of San Francisco and local friends assembled at the home of the Moore's after the christening and enjoyed a dinner in honor of the new named baby which was called Elma. The Godparents were Fred Norrbom of Sonoma and Mrs. E. Pilastre of this place.

A runaway occured here one day last week. The horse and wagon of Harold Peterson, a chicken man in the western foothills, was left standing in front of a local business place while the owner and a number of other staunch politicians were discussing the recall election, during which the name of Bigelow was mentioned. The horse became frightened at this and started homeward on his own hook. After running about a mile the frightened steed was overhauled by those in pursuit and brought to a standstill. Mr. Peterson declared, breathlessly, that too much Kilgore was the cause of the steed taking to flight. No damage was done.

The able written editorial in last Sunday morning's Press Democrat was read with interest here. The subject was the abuse of the recall and went to tell of the unfair way certain people down this way were going to recall an honest official, Supervisor Harry Weise, who had done nothing wrong. It is with much pleasure to the honest voters of this district that the outside papers are taking a hand exposing this latest piece of dirty politics and we hope that all the papers will come out and declare themselves against the recall and help crush the man who is at the head of all trouble occuring in Sonoma Valley of late. After this election is over if any more of these uncalled for elections are going to be pulled off the voters should all get together, go to the county seat and pull down the court house if necessary to find out if this thing is going to be tolerated.

Vote for Supervisor Weise at the coming election and be on the winning side.

Andrew Goess, a well known Sonoma contractor, was a passenger for Berkeley on Monday morning.

Mrs. J. Daughney, accompanied by Miss M. Crane of San Francisco, was a guest at Crane's Hotel last Sunday.

Lucian Pilastre, a San Francisco motorman in the employ of the United Railroads, was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Boyes Springs baseball nine showed their speed on the Cotati diamond last Sunday by defeating the home team. The score was Boyes Springs, 16; Cotati, 9.

Tom Millerick and Otto Brandt, two well-known and celebrated Schellville sports, passed through here Saturday en route to Santa Rosa.

H. Baines, Larry Larsen and party were fishing at Embarcadero last Saturday. A large carp weighing ten pounds was caught by the latter and some time was had in landing the fighting fish on dry land.

Jack Daughney, Jr., of San Francisco, is in town renewing old acquaintances. He is registered at Crane's Hotel.

A number of trout have been planted by the State Game and Fish Commission in a number of our local trout streams.

An extra freight train has been put on over the Santa Rosa branch. It is a night train and runs between Suisun and Santa Rosa.

The German Singing Club of San Francisco will visit Oak Grove resort some time next month. This is a jolly crowd and for the past several years have held their annual picnics at this popular resort.

The slide of Supervisor Harry Weise was put on the curtain at the El Verano Theatre by Manager Collins last Friday evening. It brought down the house and his opponent must have heard the applauding at Kenwood. It lasted for at least a quarter of an hour.

The general opinion and from a canvass of near-by districts, it looks as if Supervisor Weise will carry them at a 3 to 1 shot. Everybody is against the recaller and will vote him out of the polls at the coming election Kilgore is to be pitied for accepting the nomination.

At a meeting of the Verano Improvement Club last Monday evening, Mayor Haden presiding, it was unanimously voted to support Harry Weise for Supervisor against Bigelow's Prohibition candidate, Elmer Kilgore. About thirty members were present and it was an applauding assembly.

There came very near being a serious accident here last Sunday. A special fruit train bound for Santa Rosa at 11:45 came very near running into a bus loaded with passengers. The bus drivers should be careful in crossing the tracks here and this should be a warning to one and all The outfit that nearly caused the terrible accident and slaughter belonged to Fest's Farm.

Attorney Frank Sprague of Sonoma, who so eloquently pleaded the case of N. Ramazano and also made an oration that set the court afire and brought from the accused blind pig operator that our reform Guy Bigelow who has been doing everything in his power to dry up the valley had told him to sell the boose, was in town last Saturday receiving congratulations on his speech to the court.

Our poundmaster, C. F. Carmer, made a slaughter of cows last Saturday and landed them in the pen. They were tearing up things on the Spindler property and were driven to the pound by ranch hands. The pound fee is a dollar per head when over five. Our poundmaster, after the hint a few weeks back in the Sonoma Index-Tribune, is attending to business right up to the letter.

One of the features of the nickel dance at Sonoma Saturday evening will be a sack of wheat given away by the band boys, that is, it will be distributed among the old hens to keep them from cackling about the X-ray dresses, ragging, etc. It is the opinion of McKiver that these weekly dances are a big thing for Sonoma, as it keeps the young people at home.

Attacked With Lockjaw but Will Survive.

Miss Alice Kehoe, the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kehoe residing near Vineburg, was seized with lockjaw, on Thursday of last week, brought on by the bite of some poisonous insect. Drs. Leix and Tobar who were treating the case, when symptoms of lockjaw set in, immediately called Dr. E. Z. Hennessey of Napa into consultation. For a time the life of the patient was despaired of but owing to heroic treatment the child was pronounced out of danger last Wednesday.

Killed Another Buck

Julius Poppe, Jr., killed another buck last Monday, being the second one he has brought into town since the season opened. He shot both bucks a few miles in the mountains southwest of this city. Julius dosen't have to go away from home to secure big game. It is here if you only know the ropes.

Drs. Leix and Leix to Take Vacation.

Dr. Fred. Leix and Dr. Francis Leix, who have been in constant practice here seven years, will take a well-earned vacation of five or six months in visiting the medical centers of Europe. The doctor and his estimable wife, who is also a practicing physician, during their stay in Sonoma have endeared themselves to many of our people, who will be pleased to know that their absence will be only temporary. They will be accompanied in their journeyings by Master Freddy Leix. They expect to take passage from San Francisco next Monday for Scotland, where they will spend some little time with Mrs. Leix's relatives. They will then visit London, Paris and all the big cities in the German Empire.

During their sojourn abroad their Sanitarium and practice will be looked after by Dr. and Mrs. Irving C. Gobar of San Francisco. The former is a well-known physician of the metropolis and the latter an expert trained nurse.

The many Sonoma Valley friends of Dr. and Mrs. Leix wish them bon voyage.

Figuring Horse-Power of Automobile Engines

To find the horse-power of your motor-car, square the diameter of the cylinder, multiply it by the number of cylinders, and divide it by 2½.

"That is the rule adopted by the Society of Automobile Engineers. It is not absolutely accurate but it is approximately so, at a definite piston speed, and it is at least as fair for one maker as for another.

"While we are interested in this computation, still the Hudson cars are not rated according to any arbitrary formula. We test Hudson engines on a dynamometer, which gives readings showing actual brake horse-power. The motor of the "54," a Six-Cylinder car develops 57.8 horse-power at 1,500 revolutions per minute. At a little higher engine speed it shows 65 horse-power.

"It is hardly fair therefore to any of the modern efficient motor-cars to use the standard S. A. E. rating. Efforts are being made to secure a more accurate formula, and it is likely that this will be accomplished. Practically all motors are now made with the long stroke. This affects very much the accuracy of the standard rating."

Supervisor Weise and His Attempted Recall

The election called for the 16th of September for the purpose of recalling Supervisor Harry Weise is a silly attempt and a costly one, too, to the taxpayers of Sonoma county to harass a most capable, honest and worthy official because he refused to do the bidding of an egotistical local dictator, whose only aim in life seems to be to breed trouble and discord in this community.

Since assuming office last January Supervisor Weise has done his sworn duty and nothing else but his duty. His record has been a clean one, and there is no occasion whatever for recalling or rebuking him unless it be to gratify the vanity and spitefulness of an egotistical ass and a few of his deluded folllowers.

The Santa Rosa Press Democrat of August 17th, in a lengthy editorial on the "Abuse of the Recall," and Supervisor Weise's case, says this among other things:

"The principle of the recall is highly meritorious, for it affords a comparatively simple way of dispensing with the services of a public official who has shown himself incompetent, corrupt or otherwise unworthy of confidence. But like most other privileges, the recall is something that can easily be abused.

Recall elections have been held one after another, not only in this State but elsewhere, without accomplishing the slightest result, beyond putting the public to unnecessary expense and stirring up animosities that might better have been avoided.

Before such a movement can result successfully, it seems necessary that there be behind it some contention of real merit. Mere disaffection upon the part of a few is seldom if ever the final arbiter. The great mass of the people can usually be depended upon to decide such matters fairly, refusing to be swayed unduly by appeals to passion or to impulse. In such cases the tendency is to weigh the candidate's general fitness and consider his entire course in office, rather than condemn him forever on account of any one act. If the thing complained of is really serious, the fact will usually be given due consideration and there is little likelihood of the candidate being continued in office. But unless a recognized and undeniable offense has been committed, and the fact is duly established, an official whose personal conduct has given no cause of complaint, whose public career has been generally satisfactory, and who has given reasonable evidence of the fact that he usually tries to do the right thing, need have no especial fear of facing the recall. It may subject him to great personal inconvenience, put him to much unnecessary expense, and cause temporary humiliation to himself, his family and his friends; but it seldom deprives him of his office. The net result is an abuse of the splendid privileges granted under the law of the recall, and a certain lessening of its prestige before the people. Any privilege that is constantly abused must ultimately be cheapened in the public estimation, and its effectiveness weakened correspondingly.

The case of Supervisor Harry Weise, whose recall is now being sought by certain persons residing in that district, offers an instance fairly in point. Mr. Weise was elected last year on the Republican ticket, defeating a man who had been long in office and who had served his district well. The matter of saloon regulation came up, and Supervisor Weise offered a resolution limiting the number of saloons within a given territory. This resolution was adopted by the Board. An ordinance was also submitted to the people and duly adopted at a regular election, providing that summer resorts having not less than thirty-five rooms be allowed to procure a licenses. Applications under the new law developed the fact that it and the resolution adopted by the Board were clearly in conflict, whereupon Supervisor Wiese moves that the resolution be rescinded, very properly holding that a mandate from the people is more binding than a mere resolution adopted at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

And thereupon somebody immediately starts a movement for Supervisor Weise's recall. Nobody charges that Mr. Weise has not made a good Supervisor, or that he has in any way neglected the duties of his office. On the contrary, it is freely admitted that except in regard to the one matter here noted his course since assuming office has been quite generally acceptable. No moral delinquences of any kind are charged against Mr. Weise. He has lived his entire life in the district, and is thoroughly familiar with its needs and requirements, while his opponent in the recall election is a new man whose interests are only partially there and who spends most of his time elsewhere. The whole opposition to Mr. Weise is based upon the fact that in one single instance he failed to please certain individuals who have grown into the habit of dictating to everybody with whom they come in contact and who even seem to believe themselves privileged to interpret our laws."

Silly Twaddle

The Expositor of last Tuesday indulges in this silly twaddle:

"The people of this valley asked our Supervisors for a small appropriation to kill the mosquito. Did they get it? Nit! When Hart was on the Board he had influence, and when his district asked him for an appropriation he got it."

Now, we would ask our contemporary why it opposed Supervisor Hart for re-election last November if he was so valuable a member of the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma county? If he looks good to that paper now why did he not look good to it then? We would also remind the Expositor that Supervisor Weise, like Supervisor Hart, has influence on the Board, and as proof of this we point with pride to the $15,000 appropriation Supervisor Weise secured two weeks ago for the Black Point Cut-off bridge, the largest sum of money ever secured for this district for a public improvement by any Supervisor.

J. K. Bigelow, managing editor of the Expositor, the avowed enemy of the Socialistic doctrine and who only a few months ago was demanding the discharge of Miss Margaret More as a teacher in our local high school on account of her socialistic tendencies, had the brazen effrontery to aspire to the chairmanship of the Stitt Wilson socialist meeting in Union Hall last Thursday night and was severely sat down upon. Bigelow was bluntly told by a spokesman of our local socialists that they would have none of him and instead of strutting back and forth on the speakers' platform in his evening clothes to to gratify an insane vanity he went way back and sat down.

Serious Accident

Jack Keiser, an employee on the Jas. Tate ranch, met with a serious accident last Tuesday morning. While driving a heavy farm wagon along the county road near Vineburg the horses became frightened and ran away, throwing him from his high seat on the wagon into the road. He struck on his head and lay where he fell. Later on Jack Picetti happened along and found Keiser lying unconscious alongside of the road. He picked him up and brought him into town and the injured man was taken to the Leix sanitarium for treatment.

THE SOCIAL CRUSADE.

Socialist Orators Thrill Sonoma Audiences.

J. Stitt Wilson and Norman W. Pendleton, who are touring the state and lecturing on Socialism, held three large meetings in Sonoma this week. On Monday night Pendleton spoke in Union Hall. His subject was: "The Spirit of Lincoln in the Twentieth Century." This address was introductory to those delivered by Wilson on Tuesday and Wednesday and was a forceful and logical presentation of the Socialist doctrine. Pendleton has spoken here several times and his lectures are very popular.

On Tuesday night Wilson spoke at the Don Theatre. The show house was crowded with men and women from all parts of the valley. On Wednesday night a still larger crowd greeted Wilson at Union Hall. S. P. Woodworth, a member of the local Socialist organization, presided at all three of the meetings. Here is a quotation from one of Wilson's addresses:

"As a young man, I went to the Chicago pastorate with my consciousness partially socialized, as I have indicated. And the very first day, in making my pastoral calls, my soul broke into open revolt against capitalist society. I could relate to you in detail to this very day the facts of social injustice that confronted me. I had no name for the things I saw, nor had I ever heard intelligently of Socialism. The facts began to march and countermarch before me. It seemed as if that procession were marshalled by death heads and generalled by devils. Little children imprisoned in bleak and unfriendly streets and lanes, running in and out of miserable dens, cynically called homes, youths and maidens hurried off in the early morning to shops, factories and mills women, old and young, fighting in the bread-battle, offering their labor on the world market—the armies of men, skilled and unskilled, pouring out the blood of their labor power into the mills of the gain-gods there to be ground into the rich coin of the fortune-makers—old age, beaten, baffled, struggling on, compelled to live though dead—and back and forth up and down and in and out in this procession of struggling humanity there flashed in high lights the burnished armor, the proud equipage, the gaudy splendor, the untold luxury, the glittering grandeur of wealth—"A monster gorged, amidst starving population." And my soul revolted. My soul revolted.

Club Notes

At the meeting on Friday afternoon of last week the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club received two welcome communications, one from the El Verano Development Association refunding the ten dollar cash prize awarded the float they entered in the Fourth of July parade. The other was from the Citizens Parade Committee donating the balance of their cash on hand, $12 98. The donations were most thankfully accepted. A particularly interesting paper on Pueblos and Precidios was read by Mrs. A. M. Thomson. Piano solos were rendered by Mrs. Amelia Bates and Mrs. Robt. Poppe. Mrs. H. Gottenberg was hostess for the afternoon.

Hay Market.

Somer's & Co., in their weekly bulletin, report the hay market for the past week as follows:

Receipts of hay for the past week amounted to 5334 tons, practically the same amount as arrived the week previous. A continuation of these exceedingly heavy receipts has put the local market in a condition such as not been seen for a long time. Most of the consumers who usually fill their barns at this time of the year have already done so, so that recently it has been necessary for dealers to secure extra storage space locally in order to remove the hay from the cars. By the time the shipping season is over there probably will be a great deal more hay stored in San Francisco than is usual.

Although it cannot be said that prices are materially lower here, yet it is very difficult to effect sales Most of the hay which is now arriving was purchased previous to the time the present range was established and therefore most operators are storing their hay rather than forcing sales and making a loss on their purchases.

But very little buying is being done at the present time in the countrp, either for storage or shipment. for it seems to be the consensus of opinion that trade will be very quiet during the remainder of the harvest season and even during the fall and winter months, unless of course the state would be again unfortunate in not having sufficient rainfall.
